

Free film showing – open to the public

“Synthetic Sea Story”

Wednesday 14th April, 2010

6:00pm - 7:30pm

Hokuloa Church, 69-1600 Puako Beach Drive, Kamuela

“Synthetic Sea Story” is a documentary by the Algalita Marine Research Foundation about their studies of plastic debris in the North Pacific Subtropical Gyre (Great Pacific Garbage Patch), Hawai‘i, and California and how plastic is impacting sea life. Co-founders Suzanne Frazer and Dean Otsuki of Beach Environmental Awareness Campaign Hawai‘i (B.E.A.C.H.) will lead a discussion and answer questions after the film.

For information contact: Chad Wiggins, co-ordinator of the Puako Marine Speaker Series
phone: 756 2080

