

KAHUKU BEACH PROJECT

Wednesday, 27th May, 2009

Kahuku Community Center

2:45pm - 5:00pm

VOLUNTEERS NEEDED

Join students and staff from The Leading Edge Network and volunteers from B.E.A.C.H. sorting marine debris from Kahuku Beach in order to collect data on the types and quantities of marine debris washing up on the beach from the Great Pacific Garbage Patch. Prior to the sorting activity, a free educational presentation on marine debris will be given by Suzanne Frazer, co-founder of B.E.A.C.H.

No registration is necessary. Gloves will be provided. Children must be supervised by a parent/guardian.

For more information please call B.E.A.C.H. on 393 2168.

www.b-e-a-c-h.org

The Leading Edge Network, a non-profit 501c3 after-school program, is focused on empowering, equipping, and connecting youth to decision making opportunities, essential life skills development and creative processes through experiential activities and community service projects.

Beach Environmental Awareness Campaign Hawai'i (B.E.A.C.H.) is a non-profit, volunteer organization concerned with bringing awareness and solutions to the problem of marine debris and litter on Hawai'i's beaches through litter prevention campaigns, educational presentations to schools and community organizations and beach clean-ups.